

Exercises for practising adverbs of frequency.

 What are adverbs of frequency?

Adverbs of frequency tell us how often something happens. Here are some examples:

always = immer

often = oft

never = nie

sometimes = manchmal

usually = für gewöhnlich

seldom = selten

You put them between the subject and the main verb. (Sie stehen zwischen dem Subjekt und dem Verb).

e.g. I always go to school at 8 o' clock.

If you use the verb "to be" in your sentence you put the adverb immediately after the verb. (Wird das Verb "to be" im Satz verwendet, so folgt das Adverb nach dem Verb).

e.g. She is usually very tired in the morning.

Peter hates vegetables. He _____ eats vegetable soup.

- ☐ usually
- ☐ never
- ☐ always

Rita loves dancing. She _____ (für gewöhnlich) goes dancing on Sundays.

They are very punctual. They _____ arrive on time.

punctual = pünktlich

- ☐ always
- ☐ never

He is on a diet but he _____ (manchmal) eats sweets.

diet = Diät

I have no car. I _____ walk to work.

- ☐ never
- ☐ always

They have dinner at 6 o' clock every day. They _____ have dinner at the same time.

You play the guitar on Monday and Saturday. You _____ (oft) play the guitar.

- ☐ sometimes
- ☐ often

Which sentence is correct?

- ☐ I go usually to bed at 9 pm.
- ☐ I usually go to bed at 9 pm.

Which one is the correct sentence?

- ☐ We never do our homework in the evening.
- ☐ We do never our homework in the evening.