

Exercises for practising was or were.

i Was and were (war bzw. waren) are the Past forms of the verb "to be".
I was | You were | He / She / It was | We were | You were | They were

i Questions with was and were

Was I tired?
Were you tired?
Was he tired?
Was she tired?
Was it tired?
Were we tired?
Were you tired?
Were they tired?

Was or were together with a question word:

When were you at home? What was in the bag?

i Negation of was and were

I was not (wasn't) tired.
You were not (weren't) tired.
He was not (wasn't) tired.
She was not (wasn't) tired.
It was not (wasn't) good.
We were not (weren't) tired.
You were not (weren't) tired.
They were not (weren't) tired.

?

She _____ at home yesterday.

?

It _____ sunny last week.

?

They _____ happy yesterday.

?

We _____ in London two years ago.

?

My brother _____ excited yesterday.

?

My parents _____ very hungry.

?

Peter and Paul _____ at the cinema yesterday.

?

Tony _____ afraid of dogs.

?

Our neighbours _____ in the garden two hours ago.

?

The test _____ very difficult.

?

His trousers _____ dirty yesterday.

?

His dogs _____ very big.

?

It _____ hot last week.

?

The girls _____ in front of the house.

?

When I _____ young, I liked to play with dolls.

?

_____ you tired?

?

_____ she happy?

?

It _____ (not) sunny last week.

?

My parents _____ (not) very hungry.

