

Practise negations and asking questions in the Past Simple!

i In order to form a negation in Past Simple you can also use an auxiliary verb (was, were) or a modal verb (could). In that case the negation is formed with „not. For example: I wasn't/was not at the football match yesterday.

To form a question put was, were or could at the beginning of the sentence. For example: Were you at home last night?

Be careful: Use „were/weren't“ for you, we, they

i _____ you have a nice evening yesterday?

- Did
- Was
- Do

i We _____ have time to cook dinner last night.

- wasn't
- didn't
- doesn't

i _____ she tell you about the new book club last week?

- Was
- Do
- Did

i Last summer we _____ visit our family in Italy.

- didn't
- wasn't
- don't

i _____ they take a taxi to the airport earlier?

- Does
- Do
- Did

i I _____ at the concert last night.

- wasn't
- weren't
- didn't

?

We _____ kind to you the other day. We are sorry!

- weren't
- wern't
- wasn't

?

I _____ like lunch today, it was just horrible!

- wasn't
- didn't
- don't

?

It _____ cold last night.

Use a negation!

?

_____ Tim and Kian happy about the exam results?

?

_____ you excited about the letter from your pen friend?

?

My Mum _____ at home so we watched our favourite series all afternoon.

Use a negation!

?

_____ you in Mr Rosen's class this morning?

?

_____ you take your dog to the vet yesterday?