

Practise using "must" and "must not" in sentences!

i Use "must" when you want to say that you or someone else needs to do something (or you get in trouble). For example: I must do my homework.

Use "must not/mustn't" when you or someone else needs to avoid doing something or are/is not allowed to do it. For example: You must not be late for class OR You must not smoke.

?

I _____ phone home when we arrive in London, so my parents won't worry.

- must
- must not

?

I _____ forget my sports gear for school today!

- must
- must not

?

I _____ cross the road when the traffic light shows red.

- must
- must not

?

I _____ feed my cats every night!

- must
- mustn't

?

I _____ take my keys today as nobody will be home when I return.

- must
- must not

?

I _____ forget to brush my teeth before going to bed.

- must
 must not

?

Most children _____ wear school uniforms in Great Britain.

- mustn't
 must

?

I _____ speak with a full mouth, my Dad says.

- mustn't
 must

?

I _____ listen to my favourite music after school because it relaxes me so much.

- must
 must not

?

Parents _____ look after their children well.

- must
 must not

?

We _____ use our phones in class.

- must mustn't

?

I _____ practise my lines tonight so I know them for the show tomorrow!

- must not
 must

?

We _____ shout out in class but raise our hands instead.

- must not
 must

?

I _____ eat all the biscuits but leave some for my brothers.

- must must not