

Practise using the phrase:

So do I / Neither do I.

i If you want to express the same opinion as someone else you can use the phrase "So do I" in English if the statement is positive. For example: I like cake. So do I.

?

Today I am meeting my English penfriend for the first time! We want to _____ each other lots of questions!

- asking
- ask
- asks

?

I have three sisters. Really? So _____ !!

- does
- did
- do

?

I don't have any pets. _____ do !!

?

I go to school by bike. Yes, _____ do !!

?

I don't like _____ ! Neither do !!

- fish
- fishes

?

But I like _____ meat. I am not a vegetarian. Oh, neither am !!

- eat
- ate
- eating

?

I like eating _____ . Oh yes, so do I!

- healthily
- healthyly
- healthy

?

I haven't got _____ dangerous hobbies. Neither do I!
some or any?

?

I can't play any instruments either. _____ do I!

- Neither
- Nither
- Niether

?

I just love cooking and baking! So _____ I, especially with berries!

- does
- do
- am

?

I won't go on holiday this year. Neither _____ I!

- will
- will not
- won't

?

I did a first aid course last year. Oh great, so _____ I!

- didn't
- do
- did

?

I am _____ go to the cinema tonight. So do I. With you actually!

- going
- go to
- going to

?

I haven't _____ to Paris yet. Oh, neither have I!

?

I have no idea why we have so much in common! _____ do I!